Course Catalog	Information on the course offerings for the coming semester will be available online a few months before the lecture periods starts. However, course catalogs from previous semesters give a general overview of the courses offered at Heidelberg University. Courses can be found at: https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/studium/imstudium/vorlesungen/ or https://lsf.uni-heidelberg.de/qisserver/rds?state=user&type=0&noDBAction=y&init=y
Language of Instruction	Typically, courses are taught in the German language. However, there are several fields of study with a (large) variety of courses taught in English. i.e. English Studies, American Studies, Economics, South Asian Studies, Transcultural Studies. There are usually also a few courses offered in English in Sociology, Political Science and Psychology. Many Masters programs in the field of science are also taught in English.(see link below) https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/en/study/all-subjects?study_finder--2506--filter-field_further_properties=3&study_finder--2506--filter-field_subject_shapes=31 Some of these courses may also be available for advanced Bachelor students. To search for courses offered in English please follow these instructions: https://lsf.uni-heidelberg.de/qisserver/rds?state=wtree&search=1&category=veranstaltung.browse&navigationPosition=lectures%2Clectureindex&breadcrumb=lectureindex&topitem=lectures&subitem=lectureindex&noDBAction=y&init=y → click Search for Lectures→ Change Term if necessary (past semesters can also be searched by changing the term)→click Language of Instruction and change to English→ click Start Search to begin searching for courses. *please note that searching for a specific department, the department must be written in German. There is no minimum German language requirement for exchange students from US partner institutions!

German Language Instruction
Preparatory Language course	Exchange students may take part in a 4-week intensive language course at the International Study Center before the start of the semester (offered in September for fall semester students and in March for spring semester students). The program includes 80 hours of language instruction at all levels (basic, intermediate and advanced). All courses contain exercises dealing with German grammar, conversation, reading and writing, listening comprehension, lexis, phonetics, regional and cultural studies, and information about studying in Heidelberg. http://www.isz.uni-heidelberg.de/e_courses_vdk.html The fee for this course is covered by the International Relations Office for exchange students.
German Language Instruction	Students who seek additional support regarding their German language proficiency during the lecture period are offered a large variety of language courses at the University's International Study Center (ISZ). Students may choose between a 4 and an 8 hour per week general German language course. In addition, there are numerous subject-related courses all exchange students may take part in. These courses complement the regular courses offered at the University. All students are allowed to attend both the German language courses as well as the subject-related courses offered by the ISZ http://www.isz.uni-heidelberg.de/e_courses_sbk.html .
Intensive German Language Course	Students without any or with only limited German language experience have the opportunity to attend a full time intensive (20 hour per week) language course in which 24 ECTS can be earned per semester. *A shortened option may be available upon request in the fall semester to permit US students to return to their home institutions for the winter/spring semester. (ca. 16 ECTS)
Intercultural German Studies (Germanistik in Kulturvergleich)	The Institute for German as a Foreign Language Philology (IDF) offers various degree programs as well as a broad spectrum of courses especially developed for short-term, non-degree students. Exchange students will find courses geared to improve their language competency as well as a large variety of German studies courses. (Literature, Art, Cultural Studies, Linguistics, History, etc.) To get an impression of the courses offered please see: https://lsf.uni-heidelberg.de/qisserver/rds?state=wtree&search=1&trex=step&root120202=122602 122421 119761 121149&P.vx=mittel

Student Life
Accommodation	Exchange students from overseas are privileged to receive guaranteed student housing. Living in student residences is the most affordable and most convenient way of student living in Heidelberg and all exchange students are strongly encouraged to consider this option. Types of accommodation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • single room sharing kitchen and bathrooms in groups of 2 – 4 • single room in dormitories • small number of single apartments For more information please see: http://www.stw.uni-heidelberg.de/en/wohnheime
Fees of student housing	Approx. 250 – 350 EURO / Month 450 EURO refundable deposit
Special housing needs	Students who have special housing needs due to a disability, allergy or other health problems should inform the exchange coordinator and indicate this on their application.
Cost of Living / Financial Planning	Approx. 860 EURO per month Please refer to the information given on this website: https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/courses/prospective/admission_int/guide/pre-departure_information.html -> financial planning
Insurance	Health insurance is compulsory for all Heidelberg University students. In order to receive a residence permit/visa, students must prove that all health costs are completely covered by their insurance provider. We therefore strongly recommend that students take out statutory health insurance in Germany to comply with visa requirements. Avg. price of comprehensive insurance per month: 110 EURO *state insurance in Germany is very comprehensive! students aged 30 and above do not qualify for state health insurance and have to purchase private insurance https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/courses/prospective/admission_int/guide/pre-departure_information.html https://www.stw.uni-heidelberg.de/en/international_health_dictionary Students are also strongly recommended to take out personal liability insurance (Haftpflichtversicherung) for their stay in Germany, as well as extra insurance coverage at home for the period between arrival and enrolment at Heidelberg University.
